

Woods Runner

Kate, Haleigh, Maeve

Time

1776 during the War of Independence

A photograph of a forest with tall, thin trees and a mossy ground. The text "Place" is overlaid in white, centered in the upper half of the image.

Place

Woods near Pennsylvania

Samuel

He is a young boy who is very scraggly and is 13 years of age.

Samuel is grouchy, adventurous, and independent.

He is round and the protagonist because we knew a lot about him and he is a protagonist because he is the good guy, and dynamic character because his character changes through the book.

Rising Action

1. Samuel was in the woods when he realized there was a war going on.
2. He went home and his parents were missing, so he had to start his mission to find them.
3. He found a family and ate with them, to later find out the enemy had swept through there and killed the parents. He then decided he would keep the daughter, annie, as his sister.
4. They met a guy named Abner, and they went to New York to find Samuels Parents.

Effect on the main character

He is determined and is a good person because he goes out of his way to save Annie. He is also a little confused.

Conflict

His parents disappeared and were held captive. He spends most of his time looking for them.

Man vs. Man, Man vs Nature, Man vs Himself

Climax

He found his parents in
New York.

Theme

Keep trying and don't ever give up.

Reflection

Haleigh: I thought The books was really good. I always was wanting to Keep reading. During the War, I was always on the edge of my seat. I completely recommend this book, and would rate it a 10/10.

Kate: I thought the book was really interesting because I enjoy books that take place during the wars and that are very action packed. This book makes you just want to read it all in just one day. I also liked the extra detail from after a chapter when there was information on what was happening in the world.

Maeve: I thought the book was okay at the beginning but at the end it was really good I also liked the book cause I like mysteries. I would recommend the book and I was always on the edge of my seat it was very good.